

Carlos Brambila Paz

Biography

He has a PhD in Sociology and Demography from the University of Chicago and has been a research professor at El Colegio de México, at the Center for Demographic Studies and Urban Development, and an associate researcher of the Population Council. He has been awarded scholarships from the Ford and the Rockefeller Foundations to work on public-policy analysis projects.

Education

PhD in Demography, University of Chicago.
Master in Social Science, University of Chicago.
Degree in Communications, Iberoamericana University.

Areas of expertise

Program Assessment:

Mariscal, Judith & Carlos Brambila. 2012. Institutional Connectivity: The Case of Mexico. Information Technologies & International Development. Volume 8, Number 4, Winter 2012 (Special Bilingual Issue: Research on ICT4D from Latin America), 1–20.

Poverty:

Compilation of: Research Priorities on Poverty and Territorial Development. 2014. México: EGAP-Tecnológico de Monterrey.

Local Government:

Brambila, Carlos. 2014. Local Government Capacities: Finance, Planning, and Tax Collection. Chapter 7 in the book: Sustainable Cities in Mexico. México- UNFPA.